

NEWS ALERT

COS COB, CT, December 4, 2018--Greenwich Historical Society joins our nation in mourning the passing of President George H. W. Bush. The Antiquarius Holiday House Tour and Boutique will continue as scheduled on Wednesday, December 5, a national day of mourning for a truly great American and former Greenwich citizen.

In honor of one of our own who made an indelible mark on the Greenwich, national and global stage, the Greenwich Historical Society has memorabilia relating to the Bush family and the former president's childhood in Greenwich on display its new museum and archives located at 47 Strickland Road in Cos Cob. Items in the display include photos, news stories and event programs.
