Annual Marionette Performance: Wasabi, A Dragon's Tale December 10 at the Greenwich Historical Society

The Greenwich Historical Society will host two performances of Wasabi: A Dragon's Tale, performed by No Strings Marionette Company on Saturday, December 10, 2016. The modern-minded fairy tale is performed by 11 exquisitely crafted marionettes and set against a sumptuous storybook backdrop. In it, Princess Aja happily contemplates her upcoming marriage to Prince Olaf until her outlook is suddenly changed by fire-breathing Wasabi, who swoops from the sky, reduces the palace to ashes and carries off her betrothed. Find out how the spunky princess, with a little help from her friends, outwits Wasabi to save the day. A transforming sprite, a fashionable knight, and a seven-foot dragon are all featured in this newfangled fable, where both imagination and stage know no boundaries.

After the 30-minute performance, No Strings' puppeteers will also host a Q & A session during which members of the audience will have a chance to meet the performers and the puppets.

No Strings Marionette Company is a two-puppeteer touring marionette theater that creates performances for family audiences and designs and fashions their own puppet casts. They also teach their craft to a wide range of people through puppet-making workshops and residencies. Purchase early: These shows sell out.
