ANNUAL REPORT

IF YOU LIVE OR WORK
IN GREENWICH,
YOU HAVE A STAKE
IN THE GREENWICH
HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

Greenwich enjoys a truly colorful past. From its precarious position on the Connecticut frontier during the American Revolution to its later reputation as a Gilded Age enclave for the rich and infamous, our town has long been associated with well-known individuals and pivotal events in the arts, business, journalism and politics.

The Historical Society contributes immeasurably to the cultural vitality of this unique community. We serve as your bridge from the past to the future by offering innovative programs, exhibitions and preservation initiatives. The Bush-Holley Historic Site, which boasts a stunning period landscape, was home to one of the first American Impressionist art colonies and consists of an extensive research library and archives chronicling all things Greenwich, the Vanderbilt Education Center, the 1805 Storehouse Gallery with rotating exhibitions and a museum shop.

At the Historical Society, you can attend fascinating lectures, enjoy hands-on family and educational programs, walk back in time on docent-led tours of Bush-Holley House and be captivated by live storytelling programs.

One visit and you'll understand the value of supporting this invaluable Greenwich resource.

Letter from the Chairman and Executive Director

Dear Members, Patrons and Friends:

This has been a year of innovation and introspection. We expanded our “e” communications and developed more hands-on learning features in our children’s gallery. We employed new technology in the form of a digital community wedding album, which expanded our exhibition narrative as more and more of you shared photos and stories.

The popularity of our Green Market programs continued to grow as we hosted the first annual Harvest Supper in the Barn, learned how popular chef John Barricelli became a locavore and enjoyed a magical summer picnic at French Farm. We partnered with the Greenwich Tree Conservancy to explore the history of our beloved Montgomery Pinetum and Bruce Park, and master gardeners once again treated us to the miracle of turning heirloom seeds into a lush garden right here at our site. A host of community artists enlivened our Storehouse Gallery shop with unique visions.

More than 3,500 students, Scouts and campers enjoyed tours of Bush-Holley Historic Site and expressed their impressions of the experience through an array of engaging activities—from debating whether it was easier to be a Patriot or a Loyalist during the Revolutionary War, to donning the uniform of a Civil War soldier, to creating self-portraits and role playing.

Even as we enjoyed these successes, we also devoted time to critical self-examination. With the generous input of our board, staff, members and friends, we crafted a strategic plan that will guide us through the next five years. As a result of that demanding exercise, we are more dedicated than ever to demonstrating the transformative power of connecting people of all ages with the history of this community. In pursuing that goal, we are building partnerships that will enable us to design creative educational programs, offer dynamic and relevant exhibitions, improve our facilities and assume a greater leadership role in the preservation of Greenwich history.

None of this would have been possible without each and every one of you. Warmest thanks to our faithful members, hardworking board, generous patrons, corporate sponsors and community leaders.

David Wierdsma was a lifelong Greenwich resident, conservationist, preservationist and founder of French Farm, a historic landscape that he transformed into a unique artistic expression. In partnership with the Friends of French Farm, the Greenwich Historical Society will continue to promote David’s desire to foster the historic gardens and landscapes of Greenwich. We are deeply indebted to David for both his generous gift and his foresight.

Financial Highlights

TREASURER’S NOTES: Our operations for the year, which reflected the ups and downs in the economy, produced a small loss of $1,500 compared to an $81,000 loss last year. The Black & White Ball and Antiquarius Boutique and House Tour were resounding successes, which offset declines in other sources of revenue.

The Historical Society received an endowment of $1.6 million upon the death of David Wierdsma in 2011 (see sidebar). In addition, return on the existing Endowment (permanently restricted fund) improved significantly under the able leadership of Finance Chair Fraser Beede. While expenses remain under tight control, we will continue to support exciting upcoming exhibitions, preservation initiatives and educational programs. —Bruce Dixon

the black & white ball

The Black & White Ball to benefit the Historical Society, held at the Loading Dock on Friday, November 12, 2010, was a resounding success and a sellout with over 250 in attendance. The evening featured cocktails, dinner, dancing and a film about Truman Capote created expressly for the event and produced by board member Regina Pitaro Gabelli. The movie celebrated the colorful story of Capote's early life as a budding writer at Greenwich High through his trajectory to fame that culminated in the original 1966 Black & White Ball. Honorary chairs were Icy and Scott Frantz and Roxanne and Hugh Vanderbilt. The gala earned more than $250,000 for the Historical Society.

Our Deepest Appreciation to Christopher C. Holbrook

From time to time trustees stand out for their extraordinary and dedicated service to the Historical Society. This year we salute Chris Holbrook, who first joined the Historical Society board as our youngest member in 1997 and served as president from 1998 to 2004. During his 12 years of service on the board, Chris has made an invaluable contribution to our historic preservation programs and building projects. He contributed to the creation of our Master Site Plan in 1999 and implemented the first phase in 2000–2002. The result is our wonderful Hugh and Claire Vanderbilt Education Center, historic gardens and landscape that delight visitors to Bush-Holley Historic Site. For over a decade, the Executive Director and Executive Committee have benefited from his keen insight and sound advice, and last year he chaired the Chairman's Advisory Council. Although he steps off the board in 2011, he remains on our Building and Grounds Committee where he will continue to lend his invaluable expertise. Thank you, Chris!

Outgoing board member Pen James with Betty James
