

Around the World Worksheet

Instructions:

Step One: Go onto Wikipedia and type in the name of your hometown. This will bring you to something called a disambiguation page. (That's a fancy name for a page that lists all the different things with the same name)

Step Two: Go to the 'places' section of the disambiguation page, and pick three different places.

Step Three: Answer the following questions

Place One

1. Where in the word is this place? What country? What Continent?

2. What is this place like? Find a fact about this place's nature or history.

3. Look up a picture. See what it looks like.

Place Two

1. Where in the word is this place? What country? What Continent?
2. What is this place like? Find a fact about this place's nature or history.
3. Look up a picture. See what it looks like.

Place Three

1. Where in the word is this place? What country? What Continent?
2. What is this place like? Find a fact about this place's nature or history.
3. Look up a picture. See what it looks like.
