CLUE 1

Named for a local Olympian who ruled the ice and grew up in Riverside, this is the place where triple-axels preside!

CLUE 3

Just off of Holly Hill, you'll find this field that is so fun filled! From cricket to pickleball you'll find it all-head to this playground and go play ball.

CLUE 2

This field bears the name of local Byram legend and founder of Greenwich Babe Ruth baseball. Once you find it, you'll know the places, so find the field and round the bases!

CLUE 4

Home to the Yantorno Community Center, this park and playground are an adventure. They have plenty of games to play and explore, and a new pollinator pathway launching that promises butterflies galore!

CLUE 5

This popular club for kids was all over the television when LeBron James made his world famous basketball "Decision."

CLUE 10

America's favorite pastime has a home at this park from 1908, with a field that really is great. Look for the diamond and have some fun-round all three bases and get a home run!

CLUE 6

Before the fields were open to all, they were a place where students played ball. On a busy street, you'll find this location - right near the Board of Education!

CLUE 11

Have fun at this skate park with a view of the sound - it hosts an annual party for those in town!

CLUE 7

This is the place where racketball began, designed by Joseph Sobek for every "Young Man." Promoting the advancement of spirit, body, and mind, this famous façade isn't hard to find!

CLUE 12

At this park along the sound, views of boats in the harbor abound. Walk the path and you'll come across a memorial that honors loved ones lost.

CLUE 8

For pickleball, summer camp, and cardio hour, head to this place that celebrates girl power!

CLUE 13
